Kabul, 1st December 2017

Dear Readers,

Afghanistan is open for business and we Afghans are making sure that when you come we have the goods, the services, the labor, the means to help you expand your business. Your time and your money at minimum risk, your dreams taken further, your ambitions met halfway!

We deliver from the other end of Afghanistan.

I am Katrina Khan, the crème de la crème of Kabul high society , Afghanistan UK Bridge Guest Editor for the month of December 2017. Beware of what you think you know about my country!

BBC and Channel 4 News might well show you Taliban Fighters and poppy fields, but my poppy fields are very real and very much in the heart of Afghanistan.

Our vision of success includes children, mothers struggling to bring their children and support their husbands the best way they can, Afghan expats and international investors worldwide.

The women in our team are yet to fit Afghan stereotypes so though we are naturally living in a country infamous for drug production ..... We are not in the hood!

And we are certainly not in the Desert!

From Afghanistan with LOVE,

K KHAN

Louvre Abu Dhabi is open to the Public!

Louvre Abu Dhabi opened its doors to the public on 11 November 2017. It is the first museum of its kind in the Arab world: a universal museum that focuses on shared human stories across civilizations and cultures.

Located in Abu Dhabi, the capital of the United Arab Emirates (UAE), Pritzker Prize winning French architect Jean Nouvel has designed a museum city (Arab medina) under a vast silvery dome. Visitors can walk through the promenades overlooking the sea beneath the museum's 180-metre dome, comprised of almost 8,000 unique metal stars set in a complex geometric pattern. When sunlight filters through, it creates a moving 'rain of light' beneath the dome, reminiscent of the overlapping palm trees in the UAE's oases.

On display will be the museum's important collection of artworks, artefacts and loans from France's top museums. These span the entirety of human existence: from prehistorical objects to commissioned contemporary artworks, highlighting universal themes and ideas and marking a departure from traditional museography that often separates according to origin. In addition to the galleries, the museum will include exhibitions, a Children's Museum, a restaurant, a boutique and a café.

Louvre Abu Dhabi forms one element of Abu Dhabi's cultural strategy, which safeguards our rich heritage and catalyses creativity. Investment in a vibrant cultural ecosystem supports the UAE's economic diversification and development as a modern, dynamic society. Louvre Abu Dhabi will inspire a new generation of cultural leaders and creative thinkers to contribute to our rapidly-changing and tolerant nation."

The intergovernmental agreement includes the loan of the Musée du Louvre's name for 30 years and 6 months, temporary exhibitions for 15 years, and loans of artworks for 10 years.

Tickets for the museum will cost 60 AED for general admission and 30 AED for ages between 13 and 22, as well as UAE education professionals. Free entry will apply to members of the museum's loyalty program, children under 13 years, ICOM or ICOMOS members, journalists, and visitors with special needs (referred to visitors with determination in the UAE) as well as their companion.

THE 7TH EDITION MIDDLE EAST LIGHTING DESIGN SUMMIT SET TO EXPLORE THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE LIGHTING INDUSTRY

Speaker session in progress at the 2017 edition of the event

United Arab Emirates, Dubai, 9th November 2017 - Following the continued success of the Middle East Lighting Summit in April this year event organizers, Expotrade, today announced the 7th edition of the summit - the Middle East Lighting Design Summit - to take place on 2nd and 3rd May 2018 in Dubai.

The region's leading lighting summit will bring together lighting experts, designers, architects, developers and urban planners from across the GCC region.

Where in previous years, the event has focused on aspects such as smart lighting, public lighting and street lighting, the 2018 summit will lay a strong emphasis on lighting design and the current trends, technologies and practices that are shaping the lighting design industry. The summit will see an impressive line-up of experts speaking on a range of lighting design topics, including lighting systems of the future; human centric lighting; the importance of lighting in interior design; indoor light management; architectural lighting; and urban lighting design concepts.

Lighting design is becoming increasingly significant across the region, especially as it is forecast to be one of the fastest growing markets. Furthermore the GCC has already committed to reducing its carbon footprint and electricity demand by 2025, with extensive targets in place to achieve this - and companies are striving to improve visual appeal whilst simultaneously employing sustainable methods of lighting.

Mr. Brad Hariharan, Regional Director, Expotrade Middle East, comments: "With the ever-increasing digitalization of light, technology and connectivity, lighting companies are set to adapt their business models and devise a new approach to industry growth. At this year's summit, these types of companies will be part of the 400+ lighting professionals from across the region that will meet to gain new insights and opportunities to discuss new technologies, trends and the future of the lighting design industry."

Experts including Gerd Pfarré, Managing/Design Director, Pfarré Lighting Design; Rodrigo Roveratti, Associate Lighting Designer, Nulty+; Gerald Strickland, Director, Middle East Lighting Association; David Lessard, Director of Hospitality, Perkins+Will; and Tanas Khoury, CEO, Light Concept are just some of the speakers that have confirmed their attendance at the summit in advance.

Furthermore, the event will include the world's leading manufacturers showcasing their most innovative products and applications – the previous edition saw household names such as Philips, Osram, EE Consulting, Tecon and Fael Luce participate at the event.

Mr. Hariharan continues: “The 7th Annual Middle East Lighting Design Summit will not only offer leading and international experts speaking on a range of topics, but it will also provide delegates with an ideal opportunity to learn more about the potential within the market, developing trends and emerging technologies driving the sector.”

More information on the summit is now available at www.lightingsummit.com Follow the Summit on social media with the hashtag #MELDS2018.
